Homefree Earns EcoVadis Silver Medal for Sustainability Performance

WINDHAM, N.H., Sept. 2, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- Homefree "treats you can trust," maker of wholesome, allergy-friendly cookies and brownies, is proud to announce that it has earned the EcoVadis Silver Medal, recognizing the company's commitment to responsible, sustainable business practices. This recognition places Homefree among the top 15% of companies assessed by EcoVadis worldwide for sustainability performance.

Earning the EcoVadis Silver Medal reflects the company's belief that creating inclusive foods that people can trust is a commitment encompassing every part of the business. It involves maintaining the highest standards of food quality and safety, as reflected in Homefree's Safe Quality Food (SQF) Level 3 certification. It includes reliably producing products free from gluten and the top 14 allergens using industry-leading standards in its own dedicated facility. It includes trusted certifications such as Women Owned, Non-GMO, a good source of whole grain, kosher pareve, vegan, and in some cases organic. It also means operating responsibly and thoughtfully.

"We've always believed that how we make our products matters," said Jill Robbins, President and Founder of Homefree. "We're honored that EcoVadis has recognized that commitment." Since founding Homefree, Jill Robbins has made sustainability an integral part of the company's decision-making. From responsible sourcing and ethical business practices to thoughtful stewardship of resources, Homefree is committed to making choices that support its customers, employees, communities, and the environment. The EcoVadis Silver Medal recognizes Homefree's long-standing commitment to accountability, transparency, and responsible growth.

As Homefree continues to expand its line of inclusive baked goods, sustainability will remain an important part of its mission to create treats people can trust while making a positive impact beyond the bakery.

About EcoVadis

EcoVadis is a globally recognized provider of business sustainability ratings, evaluating companies across four key areas: Environment, Labor & Human Rights, Ethics, and Sustainable Procurement. The Silver Medal recognizes organizations that demonstrate strong sustainability management practices and a commitment to continuous improvement. The EcoVadis assessment provides organizations with an independent evaluation of their sustainability management systems, offering a framework for measuring progress and identifying opportunities for continuous improvement.
